

Photography Seminar and Workshop, Level 1

Description: An introductory-level course covering the fundamental principles and techniques of photography through lecture, discussion, hands-on practice and analysis of photographs, designed to help participants increase their confidence, make decisions faster and more instinctively, take fuller advantage of their cameras' capabilities and ultimately take better pictures.

For whom: Open to all who are interested in photography, regardless of the equipment they currently own or use.

When: Wed. 6:30-9pm, 15 November to 20 December (6 sessions). Possibility of scheduling flexibility according to participants' needs.

Where: La Murette, room to be announced.

Cost: First session free, subsequent 5 sessions 100€ total.

The instructor: A graduate of New York University Film School, Tom Feierabend is an award-winning documentary filmmaker and photographer with over three decades of experience directing, shooting and editing.

Contact: Tom Feierabend
prague.film@yahoo.com